Colombo City tour

Sri Lanka's largest city, Colombo, located on the west coast is the trade and commercial capital that has been the traditional gateway to the orient. This commercial hub is a mix of east, west, past and present drawing together all the cultures, religions and influences of colonialism into a perfect blend of sounds, smells and a kaleidoscope of colour. No longer just a sprawling city, you have to endure its beaches, a worthy destination on its own right, which makes an excellent start or finish to your Sri Lankan holiday. From the local bazaar known as 'Pettah' to the popular rendezvous spot 'Galle Face Green', where most days it's dotted with kite flyers, bubble blowers, families and mouth-watering street food, it is Colombo's vibrant identity coming to life. The city is also home to galleries and shops offering the best shopping opportunities and stylish eateries serving mouth-watering food of all types with fine representation of local and international cuisine.

Koneshwaram Temple

The Koneswaram Temple is one of the Pancha Ishwaram (one of the five abodes of Lord Shiva), thus making it one of the most important Hindu temples in the whole country. The temple flourished since its inception, as the many kingdoms that came, such as the Anuradhapura Kingdom, Chola Empire, Pandyan Kingdom, and the Jaffna Kingdom made sure to protect the place of worship.

Fort Frederick

Fort Frederick also known as Fort of Trincomalee was originally constructed by the Portuguese in 1624. The Koneswaram temple (Temple of Thousand Pillars) were despoiled and was razed to the ground by the Portuguese soldiers led by General Don Constantino de Sa de Noronha. After destroying the Hindu temple complex the stones and its carved pillars from the foundation were removed to construct the Fort in Trincomalee.
